

Northern California Evacuations

July 23, 2008

8:00 A.M.

The information provided below is listed by County (not incident) and is produced by the Northern Operations Joint Information Center@ www.jointinformation.com

Note: Information may not be up to date.

BUTTE / PLUMAS COUNTIES (Butte, Canyon, Cub Complexes)

Currently there are no evacuation advisories for the Butte Lightning Complex.

Residents should continue to remain alert and be prepared for evacuations if conditions change. Remain calm and follow all instructions of fire and law enforcement officials.

TRINITY COUNTY (Iron, Alps, and Lime Complexes)

All evacuations have been lifted.

SHASTA COUNTY (SHU Complex, Whiskeytown NRA)

- Mandatory evacuations are still in place for the Whiskey Creek area north of the old store.
- Visitors need to check at the Visitor Center to ensure which areas are open and closed.

HUMBOLDT COUNTY (Blue 2, Hells Half Complexes)

About 5 residents near Dry Lake were issued a mandatory evacuation order by Humboldt County Sheriff's Department on Friday. Dry Lake area will likely remain under evacuation.

Hells Half. All evacuations remain in place but are being re-evaluated daily.

LAKE and MENDOCINO COUNTIES (Soda Complex)

Seven residences remain under evacuation at this time between Deadmans Flat and Sunset Gap to the east flank of the fire. The Lake County and Mendocino County Sheriff's Department coordinated the evacuations.